Day 3: Full-Day Ulu Temburong National Park Tour

Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner

Today, you will wake up for an early breakfast at 0630hrs. Proceed for your Ulu Temburong National Park Tour – The park is protected and preserved for scientific research and low impact visitors. This day excursion is a short immersion in this amazing environment, for people with limited time; an amazing snapshot to an environment that is well protected. You will take a 45 mins. ride by local water taxi through a network of rivers and channels around the back of Brunei Bay to Bangar Temburong. Passing by dense mangrove islands, keep your eyes opened and you will possibly see wildlife enjoying the early morning sunrays along the way. From Bangar, the regional capital of Temburong, continue your journey by road to Batang Duri (the end of the road). After a morning tea and an introduction and safety briefing at the Rainforest Lodge, travel upstream through the rapids of the Temburong River using traditional longboats, to the national park entrance. At tree top level, enjoy the panoramic view of the rainforest unfolding in front of you along the Canopy Walkway.

Thereafter, enjoy a great lunch of local specialities next to the river, swim and relax before returning back downstream by longboat to the Rainforest Lodge for your afternoon tea and freshen up. Depart from our terminal building back to Bangar to catch a Water Taxi back to Bandar Seri Begawan. In the evening, proceed for your dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight in Bandar Seri Begawan.
